

CONSTITUTION FOR
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS STATE EMPLOYEES
LOCAL 2794

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of this organization shall be Northeastern Illinois State Employees Local Number 2794 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

ARTICLE II
AFFILIATIONS

This local union shall be affiliated with Illinois Public Employees Council Number 31 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees; the Illinois State Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations; and the appropriate central body of the AFL-CIO.

ARTICLE III
OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this local union shall be to carry out on a local basis the objectives of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Section 1. All employees of the State of Illinois in the following counties: Kankakee, Will, Kendall, Grundy, Livingston, Marshall, Putnam, and LaSalle, and including employees of the Department of Children and Family Service in Kane County; excluding institutional employees, Department of Family Service Employees in Livingston County, and excluding those employees within the jurisdiction of Locals 432, 3588, and 3608 are eligible for membership in this local union, subject to the requirements of the Constitution of the International Union.

Section 2. Application for membership shall be made on a standard application form. Unless such form includes a valid authorization for payroll deduction of dues, the application shall be accompanied by the current month's dues.

Section 3. The monthly membership dues of the local shall be $25.56 for full-time members effective July 1, 1998. Thereafter, dues will automatically be increased by 1% per member, per month for each dollar per month wage increase received by a majority of the members of the local as a result of a negotiated general wage increase. However, if this increase is less than the minimum dues increase required annually by the International Union Constitution, or by the Council 31 Constitution, then the dues will automatically increase in accordance with the International Constitution and/or the Council 31 Constitution.

Section 4. Membership dues shall be payable monthly in advance to the local secretary-treasurer and in any event shall be paid not later than the 15th day of the month in which they become due. Any member who fails to pay dues by the 15th day of the month in which they become due shall be considered delinquent, and upon failure to pay dues for two successive months shall stand suspended. Provided, however, that any person who is paying dues through a system of regular payroll deduction shall for so long as such person continues to pay through such deduction method, be considered in good standing.

Section 5. A member suspended under the above section may be reinstated to membership in the local on payment of all arrearages.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings of this local shall be held quarterly, at a time and place to be fixed by the membership or the local executive board. There shall also be eight executive board sessions.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the local president, the local executive board, or by petition filed with the president and signed by 25 members of the local. Special meetings may also be called by the International President or by an authorized representative of the International President.

Section 3. The quorum for transaction of business shall be eleven members seated at the meeting. The quorum for the executive board sessions shall be a majority of the executive board.

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS, NOMINATIONS, AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. The officers of this local shall be a president, a vice-president, a recording secretary, a secretary-treasurer, and executive board members as follows: one executive board member shall be elected from each department within the jurisdiction of the local, provided that there are at least ten members from that department in the local union. One additional board member shall be elected from those departments which individually have less than ten members. In addition, there shall be elected three members who shall serve as trustees. All officers, including trustees shall be elected at large for a term of two years in the odd-numbered years.

Section 2. Nominations shall be made at a regular or special meeting of the local. At least fifteen days' advance notice shall be given the membership prior to the nomination meeting. A nominating committee may be appointed or elected to make nominations, but whether or not such nominating committee is used, nominations shall be permitted from the floor at the nomination meeting. All regular elections shall be held in the month of May.

Section 3. To be eligible for office, a member must be in good standing for one year immediately preceding the election, except in the initial election held in this local; provided, however, that no retired member shall be a candidate for office.

Section 4. Officers shall be elected by secret ballot vote, and the balloting shall be so conducted as to afford to all members a reasonable opportunity to vote. At least fifteen days' advance notice shall be given the membership prior to the holding of the election.

Section 5. All matters concerning nominations and elections in this local union shall be subject to the provisions of Appendix D, entitled Elections Code, of the International Union Constitution.

Section 6. Vacancies in office shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by vote of the executive board with the exception of a vacancy in the office of the president which shall be filled in accordance with Article VI, Section 9 of this constitution.

Section 7. Every officer shall, upon assuming office, subscribe to the Obligation of an Officer contained in Appendix B of the International Union Constitution.

Section 8. Officers shall be removed from office for three consecutive unexcused absences from membership meetings.

Section 9. If the office of the president vacant, the vice-president shall automatically succeed to the presidency and the office of the vice-president shall be declared vacant and shall be filled with Article VI, Section 6 of this constitution.

- b. deposit all money so received in the name of the local union in a bank or banks selected by the executive board, and money so deposited shall be withdrawn only by check signed by the president and the secretary-treasurer.
- c. prepare and sign checks for such purposes as are required by the constitution or are authorized by the membership or the executive board.
- d. prepare and submit the monthly membership report to the International Union office and see that a check is drawn in payment of the local's per capita tax each month and sent to the International Secretary-Treasurer.
- e. keep an accurate record of receipts and disbursements and shall, once each month, submit to the membership a monthly operating statement of the financial transactions of the local for the previous month.
- f. act as custodian of all properties of the local union.
- g. give a surety bond for an amount to be fixed by the executive board of the local union, at the expense of the local union and through the International Union.
- h. see that any financial reports required by the International Union Constitution to be submitted to the International Union are submitted in accordance with the International Union Constitution.

Section 5. The trustees shall make or cause to be made at least semi-annually an audit of the finances of the local, including the finances concerning any health and welfare, pension, insurance or other benefit programs covering members of such local, and shall report to the membership on the results of such audit.

Section 6. The executive board shall be the governing body of the local union except when meetings of the local union are in session. All matters affecting the policies, aims and means of accomplishing the purposes of the local not specifically provided for in this constitution or by action of the membership at a regular or special meeting shall be decided by the executive board. The board shall meet at the call of the president or of a majority of the members of the board. A report on all actions taken by the executive board shall be made to the membership at the next following meeting. A majority of the members of the executive board shall be required for a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. This local union shall at all times be subject to the provisions of the constitution of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Section 2. Except to the extent specified in this constitution, no officer of the local union shall have the power to act as agent for or otherwise bind the local union in any way whatsoever. No member or group of members or other person or persons shall have the power to act on behalf of or otherwise bind the local union except to the extent specifically authorized in writing by the president of the local union or by the executive board of the local union.

Section 3. Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall be the guide in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the constitution and special rules of this local union or of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be amended, revised, or otherwise changed by a majority vote of the members voting on such proposed change and such change shall take effect only upon written approval of the International President. Proposed amendments to this constitution must be read at a regular or special meeting of the local union and read and voted on at a subsequent meeting of the local union, adequate and proper notice having been given to the membership prior to the date on which the vote is taken. A written copy of the proposed amendment shall be furnished to every eligible voter at the meeting at which the vote is taken.
